At a Meeting of the Cabin Passengers, held on board the steamer Gold-Den Gatte, on her passage from San Financiano to Panama. T. H. Stevens was called to the Chair, and J. H. Williams appointed Secretary, when the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resided. That in the steamer Golden. Gate the Pacific Mail Steamahip Company possess as stanch, strong, and and a will be about the standard of the standard courteous as a gentleman, and skillful and capable as an officer, and that both are deserving of the catire confidence of the traveling public, to whom we fully commend them.

Resided. That, under the professional skill and management of Capt. Lapidge, we have at all times experienced a feeling of perfect security, and that it will be always a gratification to find ourselves on board a ship under his command.

Resided. That, as a further token of sour esteem, regard, and respect, both for the man and the officers, a contribution be made to present to Capt. Lapidge, on behalf of the cabin passengers, some appropriate testimonial of these sentiments, and of the good will we entertain toward him.

Resided. That these resolutions be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the New York and San Francisco papers.

LEGEND.—The mountain forests of Pasteria are inhabited, it is said, by Pixies, Sprites and Elves who, like the Phantom Dancers of Germany, delight to entrap travelers into their realms, and torneat them with their mischlevous antics. Having the power of transfering the spirit, they often in their malicious gambols, give life to the newly dead. Statues, rocks and trees are seen fantastically moving in the forest; but is only during the pay.

at the approach of night they resume their immobility.

THE MONEY QUESTION, by Dunas fils, will be produced immediately.
